Kinderhook Memorial Library
Freedom of Information Law (FOIL) Policy

Approved October 3, 2011

The Kinderhook Memorial Library as a New York State government entity complies with the New York Freedom of Information Law (Public Officers Law, Article 6, Section 87, Freedom of Information Law).

The Library Director will be the Records Access officer. A person may request information and records available to the public in the following manner:

1. Use the Freedom of Information Law request form (attached)

2. Direct the request to the following address:
   Records Access Officer
   Kinderhook Memorial Library
   PO Box 293
   Kinderhook, NY 12106

3. Specify the records requested to be disclosed for inspection or to be copied. If you desire that any records be certified, you must specify which ones.

4. Reimburse us our actual costs for reproducing and certifying (if requested) the records. You will be charged the following fees: $0.25 per page for employee-copied records, and $1.00 per page for certification of records.

5. The Library Director will respond to a written request within five working days or sooner if possible. An extension of an additional 15 working days may be necessary to properly review the records.

6. Records may be available for inspection in person at no cost and by appointment. An employee must be present throughout the inspection.

7. Make an appeal about the decision of the FOIL officer to the president of the Board of Trustees, using the Freedom of Information Law Appeal form (attached).

Information about the Freedom of Information Law can be obtained from the Committee on Open Government:

Under the provisions of the New York Information Law, Article 6 of the Public Officers Law, I hereby request records or portions thereof pertaining to (or containing the following):

Choose one:

☐ I am requesting an appointment to inspect the records at the Kinderhook Memorial Library at no charge.

☐ I am requesting copies of all records. I understand that the fees are $0.25 per page for employee copied records, and $1.00 per page for certification of records.

As per the Freedom of Information Law, the Kinderhook Memorial Library must answer your request within five days of receipt of your request. We will call or write if there is a problem with your request. Should your request be denied, we will send you a letter explaining why your request was denied. Denied requests may be appealed to the President of the Board of Trustees if you believe you were unfairly denied access to the requested records.
