Manage Sidebar

- edit hours
- edit Newsletter sign up coding
