The screenshot displays the WordPress 'Manage Users' page. The left sidebar contains a navigation menu with 'Users' and 'All Users' highlighted with red circles. The main content area shows a list of users with columns for Username, Name, E-mail, Role, and Posts. One user, 'admin', is listed with the email 'anthonyrago@me.com' and the role 'Administrator'. The interface includes a search bar, bulk action buttons, and a 'Change role to...' dropdown.
