

Phased Reopening Plan

Approved May 12, 2021

Service Level A: Library Services Under Stay at Home Orders with 100% Workforce Reduction for Nonessential Businesses

Stay-at-home orders can mitigate the risk of spreading COVID-19 by limiting person-to-person contact through respiratory droplets, which is the main way the virus is spread, and airborne transmission, which is how the virus is sometimes spread. Under stay-at-home orders the library building will be closed to library patrons with the library supporting the community primarily through services online, by phone, and any other way patrons can interact with staff and access library resources without meeting in-person or entering the library building. Traveling to the library to obtain materials to check out materials would violate stay-at-home orders and pose a risk to staff and public health.

Service Level B: Curbside Service

At this level of reopening there is still a high risk of transmitting COVID-19 through person-to-person contact, but falling hospitalization and death rates related to COVID-19 and other regional precautions put in place indicate to state and local health officials that “more essential” retail business operations and professional services with lower risk of infection can begin to reopen with precautions in place to reduce person-to-person contact and transmission of the virus including curbside pickup.

At this level of service, the library will coordinate the services offered with neighboring libraries to avoid creating a dangerous situation where too many people are drawn to the library. The library will offer services to all MHLS member library patrons as outlined in the MHLS Free Direct Access Plan. Services offered will limit public and staff access to the building and interactions where possible. Some staff may be back in the building working while others may still be telecommuting to limit unnecessary staff exposure and observe restrictions still in place from state and local guidelines.

Transmission of COVID-19 to persons from surfaces contaminated with the virus is not thought to be a common way the virus spreads, and the most common vehicles for transmitting the disease are through close person-to-person contact and by airborne transmission. At this level of service, all staff that are capable and whose work can be completed from home will telecommute according to the library’s telecommuting policy. The library will provide staff working at the library facility with necessary PPE and post signage about the importance of social distancing, handwashing, and hand hygiene.
