FROM THE CAMPAIGN STEERING COMMITTEE

PUTTING YOUR CONTRIBUTIONS TO WORK Library Campaign Closing In On First Phase Of Construction

With the need for additional space growing with each passing month, the Campaign Steering Committee, along with the Trustees, staff, and our architect Paul Mays, have determined that it will be possible to phase construction of the renovation and expansion, and furthermore, that the donations already in hand are likely sufficient to pay for the first phase.

"This is an exciting moment," said Capital Campaign Co-Chair Jim Tuttle. "We want to meet community needs as quickly as we can if it makes sense from a financial standpoint, and we have found that our building program allows us to undertake certain smaller projects before engaging in the major final expansion."

Accordingly, the Library will add a new, approximately 450 square foot addition on the south-eastern end of the building (toward Sylvester Street), which will house a quiet reading room. Design work is now nearly complete, and the Library is on schedule for approval by all appropriate regulatory boards. Construction is scheduled to begin in 2016.

"This new space allows us to give our patrons what they've been asking for," said library Director AnnaLee Giraldo. "It will allow up to a dozen patrons at a time who don't want to be disturbed to have a comfortable place of their own, whether to read a book, newspaper or periodical, or to just sit and contemplate. While 450 square feet doesn't sound like much, it will make a huge difference."

According to Campaign Director, Matt Blumenfeld, many library projects try to phase construction if they can. "We have seen several of our clients make this decision and in each case it has worked out well. It shows donors and the community that the Library is committed to using philanthropic funds efficiently."

For more information about what is being termed the "Reading Porch" project, please contact the campaign office or AnnaLee Giraldo at (518) 758-6192, or to get in touch with Marian Sole, Campaign Co-Chair.

Sandhill Crane Adventure

Sunday, January 10, 4pm. Late last winter, Wendy and Gary Spielmann traveled to the Platte River in Nebraska to witness the annual migration of the Sandhill cranes. Each year approximately 450,000 birds travel from Mexico to the Arctic and stop in the Midwest corn fields to refuel for the 5,000 mile journey northward. Join the Spielmanns as they share their experience with slides and recordings of the cranes. All are welcome and refreshments will be served. A brief meeting of the Friends of the Kinderhook Memorial Library will precede the program.

Techspert Assistance

Tuesday, January 19, 1pm-3pm

Thursday, February 18, 2pm-4pm

Tuesday, March 15, 11am-1pm. Do you need expert help with your laptop, smartphone, tablet, or other gadget? Then you need our Tech Expert (or Techspert), Heather Lloyd! Heather runs her own business as Lloyd the Geek, and she's going to offer one-on-one assistance to our patrons to help with all their technology questions. Just call the library and make an appointment for one of the half-hour slots available on either Tuesday, January 19, Thursday, February 18, or Tuesday, March 15. It's that easy!

Paint & Sip

Saturday, January 23, 4:30pm - 6:30pm (Snow Date: January 30).

Join us in the latest craze sweeping the nation, a paint & sip at your very own library! We'll provide the wine and snacks, all the needed materials, and the instructor...all you need to bring is yourself! No artistic experience is necessary, and it's fun no matter your skill level. You'll leave with a lovely painting made with your own two hands, and a lot of good memories. You must be 21+ years old, registration is required, and the class is limited to 10 participants due to space constraints.

Artist Travelogue: Karen Hummel

Saturday, February 6, 3pm - 4pm. Local artist and art instructor Karen Hummel will take us on a trip to Scotland through the eyes of an artist! See photos of the beautiful places she visited in Edinburgh and the Highlands, hear her describe how she views new places through the lens of an artist, and see some of her work inspired by this trip. Shortbread and tea will be served, and general merriment will ensue!

Movie Screening: Age of Love

Saturday, February 13, 4:30pm - 6:30pm. The Age of Love follows the adventures of a group of older adults in Rochester, New York who sign up for an unprecedented speed dating event for 70- to 90-year olds. Fearlessly candid about their needs and desires, these WWII babies soon discover how the search for love changes – or doesn't change – from first love to the far reaches of life. Winner of the Paley Center Doc Pitch Competition and awarded a Fledgling Fund grant for its potential to change hearts and minds, the film shatters stereotypes about older hearts, proving that it's never too late to date! Valentine's refreshments will be served.

Author Talk: Mermer Blakeslee, A Conversation with Fear

Sunday, February 21, 4pm. Join us for an author talk with Mermer Blakeslee, a writer, skier, teacher, and gardener born and raised in the Catskill Mountains. Mermer's non-fiction book, A Conversation with Fear (formerly In the Yikes! Zone), emerged from her work with fearful students over the last 30 years. A professional skier herself, Blakeslee was dubbed "the ski industry's fear specialist" by the late Stu Campbell. She will discuss her work, share her experiences and advice, and answer audience questions.

NYLA's Library Advocacy Day

Wednesday, March 2. Do you love your library? Well, come share that love with your state and federal legislators at the New York Library Association's Advocacy Day on Wednesday, March 2! Join us as library staff, trustees, Friends and patrons gather from all over the state to rally in Albany and raise our collective voices on behalf of libraries everywhere. We shall not be shushed!

Book Donations

The Friends of the Kinderhook Memorial Library are so grateful for all of your wonderful book donations, but due to storage/space constraints, we will not be able to accept any more donations until the Spring. Thank you so much for your generosity!

Intro to Knitting

Sunday, March 13, 4pm (Part I)

Sunday, March 20, 4pm (Part II)

This course is intended to increase confidence, and to help students learn to enjoy knitting. We will cover the basics (gauge, cast-on and off), knitting abbreviations, and reading a pattern. Students should bring their own needles and yarn if they have them. Maureen Wilson has been knitting "seriously" for the past 15 years. She has taught knitting as well as spinning, which utilizes a spinning wheel or drop spindle to make yarn from wool, alpaca, mohair and other exotic fibers. Registration is required, and the class is limited to 8 participants.

computers, the Internet, setting up email, and Microsoft Word. Registration and a Mid-Hudson Library card are required for each class and class size is limited to 6 students. A preference will be given to people who live in the towns of Kinderhook and Stuyvesant but a waiting list will be kept for other people holding a Mid-Hudson Library card who don't live in the immediate area. Registration for the spring session will begin on March 1.

Tax Forms

It's that time of year again.....tax season! The library will be carrying a limited selection of both state and federal tax forms for our patrons. While the government no longer sends us instruction booklets, we will have a reference copy of each on hand that you can view or photocopy from. If you don't see the form you're looking for on our display, just ask at the desk. We'll print the first 10 pages of tax forms for you free of charge.

Across the Digital Divide: Making the Most of Your Library Account Online

Saturday, March 19, 4pm. Do you have an online library account? If not, we'll help you set it up. If you do, we'll show you how to make the most of online access. You'll learn how to place and manage holds, pay your fines, search the catalog, and more! Register for this session today by calling or stopping in to the library.

Diversity in Children's Books

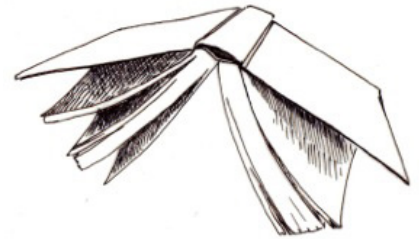

We Need Diverse Books (<http://weneeddiversebooks.org>) is a grassroots organization of children's book lovers that advocates essential changes in the publishing industry to produce and promote literature that reflects and honors the lives of all young people. They recognize all diverse experiences, including (but not limited to) LGBTQIA, people of color, gender diversity, people with disabilities, and ethnic, cultural, and religious minorities. Here at the Kinderhook Memorial Library, we recognize the importance of having a book collection that does indeed reflect and honor the lives of all of our young patrons. Here are some of our favorite children's books that we think do just that:

Picture Books:

- All Kinds of Families* by Mary Ann Hoberman; illustrated by Marc Boutavant
- And Tango Makes Three* by Justin Richardson and Peter Parnell; illustrated by Henry Cole
- The Great Migration* by Jacob Lawrence
- When Otis Courted Mama* by Kathi Appelt; illustrated by Jill McElmurray

Juvenile Fiction:

- A Long Walk to Water* by Linda Sue Park
- Brown Girl Dreaming* by Jacqueline Woodson
- Esperanza Rising* by Pam Munoz Ryan
- Wonder* by R.J. Palacio

Weekly Children's Programs

☛ Baby and Me

Wednesdays, 11am. Join us for lap time with your baby. Participate in Mother Goose Rhymes, listen to stories and sing songs! Help foster a love of reading and music at a young age. Ages birth to 18 months.

☛ Preschool Storytime

Thursdays, 11am. Children ages 3 and up are invited to join the adventure as we explore a variety of fun stories and crafts.

☛ Toddler Time

Fridays, 11am. Calling all toddlers! Come to this special storytime for little ones too active for lap time but not quite ready for preschool storytime. We will share short picture books, march around and sometimes complete a short art activity. Ages 18 months-3 years.

Family and Children

Special Children's Events

☛ Mock Caldecott

Saturday, January 9, 4:15pm. Please join us for our third annual mock Caldecott at the library! The Caldecott is an award given each year to the most distinguished American picture book. We'll talk about the award, it's history and the criteria a book needs to meet to be considered. Then, we'll look at some possible contenders and pick our winner. The American Library Association will announce the winner on Monday, January 11. Here are some of the picture books we will be considering:

Drum Dream Girl by Margarita Engle, illustrated by Rafael Lopez

Waiting by Kevin Henkes

Sidewalk Flowers by JonArno Lawson, illustrated by Sydney Smith

In a Village by the Sea by Muon Van, illustrated by April Chu

The Night World by Mordicai Gerstein

Toys Meet Snow by Emily Jenkins, illustrated by Paul Zelinsky

We will have our final list of contenders on display at the library the first week in January. All ages are welcome!

☛ Smash Books

Saturday, January 16, 4:15pm. Kids in grades 4+ can come to the library and make their very own Smash Books! Smash books are an alternative to scrapbooking for kids who want to keep track of their busy lives and/or remember the funny things and special events that happen during all that craziness. We'll provide the supplies and kids just need to bring their ideas and creativity! Registration is required.

☛ Art on a Cart

Wednesday, February 17, 1-4pm. Kids, come in from the cold to make snowmen in the library instead! Stop by anytime between 1-4pm and we will have all the supplies you will need to make a fun, snowman craft located on the cart in the children's room.

☛ STEMpunk Jr.: Dinosaur Discovery

Saturday, March 12, 4:15pm. A long, long time ago there were dinosaurs, and the kids who love them should march their way over to the library for an hour filled with crafts and activities that feature some of our favorite dino-friends! You can make dinosaur fossils out of salt dough and go on a pretend dinosaur dig. We are also going to make noodle skeletons of a T-Rex. Of course, we will also share a story or two about these awesome animals that once roamed the earth.

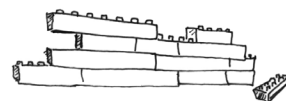

☛ Pajama Storytime

Tuesdays at 7pm on January 19, February 16, March 15. Put on your jammies, grab a teddy bear, and join Miss Beth as we read stories, sing songs and shake our sillies out before its time to go to bed.

☛ Lego Club

Thursdays at 4pm on January 21, March 17.

Children grades K+ can come and build their best creation with the library's collection of Legos. Once you are done building, check out each other's creations and display your design at the library for all to see.

☛ Bookmark Contest

Coming in April to help us celebrate National Library Week, we want you to help us design a bookmark. The contest is open to kids and teens in grades K-12. Starting on Saturday, March 12, you can pick up a bookmark and a registration form at the library and return it by Thursday, March 24th. Winning bookmarks will be unveiled at the library during a special reception on Saturday, April 9. All entries, including the winners, will be on display during National Library Week (April 10-16, 2016). Winners will be chosen in the following categories: K-3rd grade; 4th-5th grade; 6-8th grade; 9-12th grade.

Family Events

☛ Take Your Child to the Library Day

Saturday, February 6, 10am-4pm. Come and celebrate Take Your Child to the Library Day with us! This year we will be having a special family storytime at 11am with Miss Beth, followed by a fun craft. Furthermore, every child who comes to the library on this day, will receive a goody bag, AND an entry ticket to come back the very next day for our second annual Harry Potter Party!

☛ Harry Potter Party

Sunday, February 7, 4:15pm. Once again, you are hereby invited to embrace the magic and banish the midwinter blues by joining us for a celebration of all things Harry Potter! We are hoping to give new and existing fans the chance to share in the wonder of J.K. Rowling's unforgettable series. Drop in anytime between 4-6pm to make some magical crafts, play HP inspired games, or just sit back and enjoy some tasty treats. Feel free to come dressed as your favorite character! For all ages.

☛ Let's Go Lego

Monday, February 15, 2pm. There will be no Lego Club in February because we are going to have a Lego party instead! We will play a game of Bingo using Lego pieces, make some Lego inspired crafts and munch on some yummy snacks! As always, kids can make their own creations using the library's collection of Legos. For kids in grades K+.

Teens

Dr. Horrible's Sing-Along Blog

Friday, January 8, 5:30-7:00pm. We're bringing this modern cult miniseries to your library! If you're a fan of supervillains, musicals, world domination, Neil Patrick Harris, clever horses, and unrequited romances all in one show, this is the experience for you! And true to its name, feel free to sing along.

Snow Forts and Cocoa

Friday, January 22, 5:30pm. According to the Farmer's Almanac, we should expect a pretty snowy winter. Let's take advantage of it! Come by and let's build some cool (cold?) snow forts, have a snowball fight, and top it off with some hot chocolate! If the ground's a bit bare, we'll keep the cocoa and have an indoor game night! This program is for anyone age 10-18.

Anti-Valentine's Day

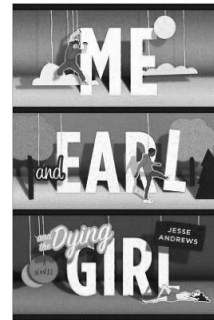

Sunday, February 14, 4:30-6:30pm. Had enough of all the cutesy pink hearts and flowers? Is Valentine's Day just another corporate cash-grab? Come hang out at our library's first ever ANTI-Valentine's Day party! Decorate some dour conversation hearts, rewrite love songs, and enjoy the day with good friends and company!

Tabletop Game Night

Friday, February 19, 5:30pm. Our Teen Advisory Board has built up a great collection of tabletop games over the past year. Will you play Evil Baby Orphanage, Exploding Kittens, or good ol' D&D? Stop by the library and find a new favorite!

STEMpunk: Dinosaur Bookends & Jurassic World

Friday, February 26, 5:30pm-8:30pm. Can you ever really "outgrow" dinosaurs? That was a rhetorical question, the answer is "no, of course not." Celebrate your love of the prehistoric by building a set of bookends featuring your favorite "Terrible Lizard," and stick around for a screening of the newest Jurassic Park film!

PAGE-TO-SCREEN BOOK CLUB Me and Earl and the Dying Girl

Friday, March 11, 5:30 to 8:00pm. Read the YA novel Me and Earl and the Dying Girl by Jesse Andrews before the book club, and join us this afternoon for a casual, roundtable discussion. We'll finish the evening by ordering a pizza and watching 2015's film version.

T-Shirt Overhaul

Friday, March 25, 5:30pm. You can give your t-shirts new life at our T-Shirt Overhaul craft night! Bring in your old shirts and learn how to cut, knot, and sew them into something new and awesome once again!

Teen Advisory Board (TAB)

Have you considered joining our Teen Advisory Board? If not, you should! As part of the group, you'll have the chance to:

- Participate in cool programs like movie marathons and game nights
- Have input into the teen book collections
- Make new friends
- Help shape the future of your library

So what are you waiting for?

Friends of the Kinderhook Library On the Horizon

Let me begin by sending a big thank-you to those who have so promptly renewed their Friends membership for 2015-16, with special thanks to those who made additional contributions above their dues amount. Your renewals and generous gifts have allowed us to begin our fiscal year in a position to fulfill our financial commitment to the Library and undertake new projects that will enable us to sustain that commitment going forward. It's not too late to renew if you haven't already, and for those of you who are not yet Friends, we invite you to join our effort as we support the goals of our Library and Board of Trustees. Applications may be found in the Library and online at kinderhooklibrary.org.

If you have not yet had the opportunity to view the latest art exhibit "Winter in America" at Jack Shainman's gallery The School on Broad Street in Kinderhook, you may not know that the Friends of the Library has a presence there. Among the pieces on display are a selection of large prints from the sketchbook Limericks H.V.S., along with the only copy of the book itself which is displayed under glass. Harold Van Santvoord's sketchbook (c. 1900) was a gift to the Library from the Van Schaack family. It was retrieved from the Library basement a few years ago and carefully preserved against the time when it might be used in a Friends fundraising project. Currently, we are preparing to offer fine art reproductions of Van Santvoord's illustrated limericks and portraits of local citizens from the turn of the last century. All proceeds from the Kinderhook Folk Art Project will go toward supporting the Library. Seeing a link to his current exhibition, Mr. Shainman chose several sketches to be reproduced and displayed in the exhibit, along with the book itself, which he has borrowed. It may seem surprising that folk art from the previous century would fit the contemporary theme of the show, but visit the exhibit and decide for yourself.

Don't miss our Friends program on Sunday, January 10 at 4 pm when Wendy and Gary Spielmann will share their exciting trip to the Platte River in Nebraska to witness the annual migration of the Sandhill cranes. A brief general membership will precede the program and refreshments will be served. All are welcome!
